

A Message from the President

Patti Neveleff- President

Happy New Year! I hope each of you had a wonderful holiday creating lasting memories with your friends and families.

As 2024 begins, we have so many fun events planned and fundraising opportunities to get involved with. Please see Ginny's article about games, dine arounds, movies, etc. If you want to learn more about our fundraising activities, please read Clety's submission regarding Ways and Means. There is information on our upcoming "Starry, Starry Night" event coming up in March. It promises to be a wonderful evening with friends, food, drink, live music, and an auction.

Our January program is right on time giving us some helpful tips on decluttering. Darlene has more info in her article under Programs. It's a great way to start off the new year and put some things aside for our upcoming yard sale on Feb 17th.

The Boys and Girls Club is having an open house for us on January 17. More details can be found under Charitable Endeavors. All members are invited to attend.

Congratulations to Anita Trapane for winning the raffle basket at our December luncheon. She said this was her first time having the winning ticket. The record setting basket brought in over $1000 to the HWCC!

I also want to thank our sponsor, Oakmonte, again for their donation of $2810 from the Senior Health fair. We so appreciate our partnership with Oakmonte!

Looking forward to seeing all of you at the next luncheon on Tuesday, January 9th if not sooner. Please remember the registration deadline is always the Thursday before the lunch. For Jan it will be Thursday, January 4th. After registering online, you will receive a confirmation email. If you do not, the registration has not been completed.

Again, I would like to wish you and yours a happy and healthy 2024!

Warmest Regards,

Patti Neveleff

Ways and Means

Clety Gomez-Chair

Mark your calendars, the Ways and Means Committee is gearing up for not just one, but two great events in the upcoming year.

Yard Sale: Saturday, February 17th.

The post-holiday decluttering is here, and what better way to say goodbye to your unwanted items than by passing them on to someone who'll cherish them?

On February 15th and 16th, the drop-off days we will be at Sawyer Lake Park Clubhouse collecting your household items, toys, books, jewelry, etc. (no clothes please) for the sale on February 17th. Hold onto those pre-loved items that you no longer want; they might become someone else's prized possession! For those interested in contributing or working the event, Cindy Sander (cmsander7@gmail.com) and Lyn-Sue Frank (linglee@cfl.rr.com) are your contacts.

Starry, Starry Night: March 6th at the Lake Mary Events Center-March 6th is going to be a night to remember with our major fundraiser of the year: Starry, Starry Night. Not only will this be a great night of food, drinks, silent auction, but we will also have dancing with the Brass Heart Band. It is an event you won't want to miss. For more information, please contact Darlene Entringer (darflorida@gmail.com).

If you would like to contribute to our silent auction or if you knew of a business who would like to donate, please email Ellen Yeaser at eyeaserhwc@aol.com. Any items already collected can be brought to the January 9th luncheon.

As always, all monies raised go to our chosen charities. Join Ways and Means Committee. Get involved, donate, and let's make these fundraisers an extraordinary success.

Warm regards,

Programs

Darlene Purvis-Chair

The January 9, 2024 HWC luncheon will feature our guest speaker Jenn Dickel aka Tenacious Clutter Tamer from Seasonal Navigation Organizing, LLC. She found her passion almost 20 years ago organizing a 4,000-foot warehouse full of delicate medical equipment and tradeshow materials where her love for organizing and getting people what they need really started to flourish. That is when the first seed was truly planted and Seasonal Navigation Organizing, LLC was created.

Jenn Dickel

We thought Ms. Dinkel would be a perfect match for our upcoming Yard Sale in February. We can start the New Year living a clutter free and organized life in 2024!

Charitable Endeavors

Patti Neveleff-HWC/HWCC President

Thank you to Pat Darrah and Connie McDonald for overseeing Secret Santa again this year! Not only did we give out 134 gifts to children in need, Oakmonte also collected 136 gifts for our charities. What a great response from all of you. We are truly making a difference by putting a smile on a child's face during this holiday season.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS to visit the West Sanford Boys & Girls Club on January 17, 3:00-4:00 pm. Enjoy refreshments with the club's leadership and some of the kids as you learn about HWC sponsored volunteer activities. Parking is limited so plan to carpool if possible – 919 S. Persimmon Ave., Sanford, FL 32771.

Contact Darlene Entringer (darflorida@gmail) with questions.

Last spring, the kids planted two vegetable gardens and enjoyed eating the produce.

Andi McNally coordinated the "Meet and Greet" event where HWC members and spouses shared their careers with the club's high school students.
